

RANGER Position Description/Requirements

Girl Guides of Canada-Guides du Canada's next National Camp, will be held at Guelph Lake Conservation Area, Guelph, Ontario, July 8 – 17, 2010. This National Camp will be the cornerstone activity of our 100th Anniversary celebrations! It will bring together more than 3000 participants from across the country and around the world to take part in an unforgettable 10 day camping journey that will enrich their Guiding experience by giving them the opportunity to meet 100 Great Friends, have 100 Greater Experiences and create the 100 Greatest Memories.

Applications for all participants will be made individually, on line at our interactive web site www.guidingmosaic.ca. As a Ranger participant, you will be required to give service to the camp by working in pre-selected areas as part of the Program, Communication, Human Resources teams; or working site, health services and food service areas. You will also take part in a fantastic and exciting program designed especially for you. Registration will be open August 15th, 2008.
